Primaries are held separately for each political party. The winners of these elections become the party's nominees in the general election in November. TSEU has strong friends in both major parties who have opponents in the primary elections. Details for your area follow. You can only vote in one party primary. In some areas there are contests in both major parties that TSEU considers important. Members in those areas should decide which races are most important and vote accordingly.

Support pro-state worker, pro-state services candidates

These candidates have been endorsed by the Texas AFL-CIO, TSEU, or both. TSEU has made separate endorsements only when the AFL-CIO has made either multiple endorsements or has not endorsed any candidate. These endorsements are only those where a TSEU and/or Labor supported candidate has an opponent in the primary.

TSEU resolutions for party conventions

TSEU members will introduce our resolutions in as many precinct conventions of both parties as we can. Contact TSEU Political Director Derrick Osobase (dosobase@cwa-tseu.org, 512 448-4225 for details or copies. Copies will also be posted on TSEU's web site.
